

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to this revised and updated version of "The Essential Guide to Astrological Literature" (the original; the best; accept no substitute!). Please note that the prices quoted in this catalogue are only correct at the time of going to print. Prices often change quite rapidly and unexpectedly, and books may suddenly become unavailable. You are therefore advised to contact the shop before placing an order, or to check on our web-site (www.midheavenbooks.com). Whenever possible we try to post orders same day, and take great trouble to ensure that the books arrive in perfect condition. When sending books within the U.K. and Europe, we use first class or airmail postage to ensure the fastest possible delivery (this sometimes means there will be a small difference in the cost of postage, as quoted). Thanks to everyone who has supported our bookshop up till now.

RECENT TITLES

RICHARD TARNAS: COSMOS AND PSYCHE h/c £23.49

Based on thirty years of research, Cosmos and Psyche is the first book by a widely respected scholar to demonstrate the existence of a consistent correspondence between planetary cycles and the archetypal patterns of human experience. It also suggests a new possibility for reuniting religion and science, soul and intellect, ancient wisdom and modern reason in the quest to understand the past and create the future.

LIZ GREENE: PLUTO AND THE INNER PLANETS (CD Rom) £25.95

In this exploration of Pluto's aspects to the inner planets, given as part of the seminar programme of the C.P.A., Liz Greene discusses Pluto's involvement with the Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus and Mars in the natal chart from both mythic and psychological perspectives and using both individual and national horoscopes.

Please ring us or visit our web-site for details of other StudyShops (CD Roms).

BERNADETTE BRADY: ASTROLOGY A Place in Chaos pb £15.50

Most astrologers believe that we live in a world of cause and effect, and have a cosmic world view of logic and order (as perceived by Plato and others). However, chaos theory represents a different form of order. Bernadette applies chaos theory to astrology - thus challenging the habits and rituals that give structure to our lives. This is a work that is sure to provoke some interesting debate between astrologers

SUE TOMPKINS: THE CONTEMPORARY ASTROLOGER'S HANDBOOK pb £18.99

This is the long-awaited volume by L.S.A. tutor Sue Tompkins, author of the modern classic Aspects in Astrology. It presents an in-depth examination of the planets, signs, houses, aspects and much more, plus an authoritative guide through the essential stages of modern horoscope interpretation and synthesis. (352pp.).

CELESTE TEAL: ECLIPSES Predicting World Events and Personal Transformation pb £14.99

The aim of this book is to show what eclipses can reveal about the current state of the world, our personal lives, and our relationships with others. It explores the significance of prenatal eclipses, and techniques for determining how past present and future eclipses will affect your life. It also illustrates how recent and historical events can be linked to eclipses. Includes a table of eclipses through to the year 2015.

PAUL WRIGHT: JUPITER AND MERCURY: An A to Z Comb-bound £10.99

The new book from the author of The Literary Zodiac and Astrology in Action demonstrates that accurate chart interpretation results from a thorough understanding of astrological symbolism and a clear, precise vocabulary. It covers a wide range of topics from creativity, celebrity and luck, to evangelism, morality and murder (86pp.).

GORDON STRACHAN: THE RETURN OF MERLIN

Star Lore and the Patterns of History pb £14.99

In this book, Gordon shows how events relating to Merlin reappear throughout British history in roughly 700 year cycles. He considers where else in history we can see this pattern emerging, and challenges readers to find their own links to history based on their birth dates. Included is a section on Charles Carter's theory of Piscean epochs.

MARTIN LASS: CHIRON - Healing Body and Soul pb £14.99

Highlighting its essential role in the horoscope, Lass details Chiron's planetary characteristics: cycles, patterns, transits and its influence in each of the signs, planets and aspects.

BABS KIRBY: 21st CENTURY STAR SIGNS

The Ultimate Astrological Guide to Life pb £8.99

A contemporary approach to the zodiac signs that's insightful, accurate and above all revealing that shows how best to survive and thrive in your sign. The book contains separate sections on the positives and negatives, men, women and children, along with constructive advice on understanding ourselves and others better.

BRUNO & LOUISE HUBER:

THE PLANETS and their Psychological Meaning pb £18.00

In this reprint in the Huber series, the authors show how the positions of the planets are fundamental to interpretation of the horoscope. They represent basic archetypal qualities that are present in everyone, and give clues to our psychological abilities and characteristics, and to our growth and spiritual development.

JANICE SHARKEY: ZODIAC GARDEN

Check price

This book gives practical instruction on the kinds of plants to grow, when to plant them, and how to tend them, as well as offering insight into which plants share characteristics compatible with the gardener's birth chart. Contains illustrations (some in colour).

OTHER REFERENCE BOOKS

- LOIS RODDEN: ASTRODATA I (Profiles of Women) pb £36.00
LOIS RODDEN: ASTRODATA II pb £22.95
LOIS RODDEN: ASTRODATA IV pb £28.00
LOIS RODDEN: ASTRODATA V - Profiles of Crime pb £28.00
LOIS RODDEN: ASTRODATA III

One of the most interesting ways to gain an understanding of how astrology works, is to study the charts of famous people, or those who epitomise a certain type (e.g. twins or suicides). Lois Rodden's "Astrodata" books are the supreme reference works for astrological research of this kind, and are extremely useful for teachers of astrology. They contain hundreds of charts with brief descriptions of the owner's credentials, and are the first books of their kind to be graded with the sources and integrity of the data.

The first book in this series is "Profiles of Women." The 1997 edition of this book is completely revised and much expanded, now containing data and biographies of notable women (500 with charts); from business to politics; from sport to entertainment. Includes hundreds of previously unpublished data with thousands of dated events (416 pp).

Volume two, previously known as the "American Book of Charts" and now republished with amendments and corrections) contains an international collection of famous and infamous people, both male and female. This can be recommended as the best book for those seeking a general collection of charts.

Volume three includes the charts of many astrologers and famous people, whilst Volume four has lots of artists and musicians. Volume five, "Profiles of Crime," is specifically concerned with charts relating to criminals, and those who have been victims of crime.

- FRANK C. CLIFFORD: BRITISH ENTERTAINERS
The Astrological Profiles pb £12.99
Excellent value, thoroughly-researched collection of birth data of well-known British personalities on stage, television, film and record. Over 800 expanded biographies, data, RR and sources. This new edition includes 200 new profiles and updates, quotes from and about the celebrities, and 350 (Placidus) chart wheels.

- REX E. BILLS: THE RULERSHIP BOOK pb £15.99
This original directory of astrological correspondences contains an alphabetical listing, plus listings by planet, sign, and house (428pp).

- MARY DOWTON & STEVE CAHILL:
The Astrologer's Textbook of Astronomy spiral bound £21.00
This book is subtitled "a Step-by-Step Guide to the understanding of the basics of astronomy for the astrology student," and is an essential purchase for all astrologers who wish to learn about the framework within which astrology operates. (Includes diagrams.)

- NICHOLAS CAMPION: BOOK OF WORLD HOROSCOPES pb £38.00
Reprint in new paperback edition. This book contains the chart of the countries of the world, and of historically significant events. Each chart is accompanied by a brief but informative commentary. Where more than one chart is significant, all possibilities are given, and their relevance assessed. The book contains an appendix, listing degrees for the planets and angels of over 500 charts, and is an essential tool for mundane astrology.

- ASTRID FALLON: PLANETARY CYCLES AT A GLANCE pb £6.50
This excellent booklet features colourful and easy to understand diagrams which illustrate a wealth of astrological information. One can, at a glance, see where and when various planetary alignments have occurred over the years. Also included are planetary, eclipse, nodal and life cycles. A useful reference work for all astrologers.

- ASTRID FALLON &
THE PRECISE PLANETARY PHENOMENA 2000 - 2010 pb £12.50
Another useful reference work with graphics, tables, and much detailed information.

- FRED GETTINGS: THE ARKANA DICTIONARY OF ASTROLOGY pb £4.99
This comprehensive and erudite work defines almost four thousand astrological terms, and is of particular use to those whose interest extends to the astronomy, history and mythology associated with astrology (575 pp. Illustrated).

- RONALD W. HOWLAND: A CHRONOLOGY OF AMERICAN CHARTS pb £22.50
An invaluable data collection of 498 charts tracing the history of America, plus charts for U.S. presidents and inauguration. To quote Nicholas Campion, "If you're at all interested in what astrology has to say about the world, buy this book."

- MARC H. PENFIELD: HOROSCOPES OF THE USA AND CANADA
Second Edition pb £28.99
In this edition, the author has added numerous cities as well as Puerto Rico and Nunavut, a new Canadian province. State charts are calculated for their capitals at the time of admission. Whenever possible, only founding dates are used for cities. There is also a short section on how you can compare your chart to any given in this book.

BEGINNERS

DEREK & JULIA PARKER: PARKERS' ASTROLOGY pb £17.99

Thirty years on, from their Compleat Astrologer, the authors have produced a revised edition of their beautifully illustrated book Parkers' Astrology. This work has now been expanded and updated for a new generation. It includes the latest developments such as the effect of Chiron, and techniques such as astro*carto*graphy and harmonics. It also takes a fresh look at horary astrology, and includes a newly generated ephemeris up till 2012. The book is dedicated to the memory of the late Charles Harvey. Check postage & packing.

ANNA KRUGER: ASTROLOGY - DESIGNS FOR LIVING pb £2.99

In this fine introduction to astrology, the author explains the dynamics of the birth-chart, and of life-cycles and times of change. DARRELYN GUNZBURG:

LIFE AFTER GRIEF - An Astrological Guide to Dealing with Loss pb £17.95

Darrellyn describes how the earliest messages we receive about loss contribute to the way we deal with grief as an adult, and can be observed in the natal chart. Using astrology as a guide, she explores how we can find the inner resources to deal with the pain of grief.

JUDY HALL: THE HADES MOON - Pluto in Aspect to the Moon pb £16.99

An in-depth look at this planetary combination. Includes chapters on the following types of Moon: Mythic, Devouring, Rejecting, Raging, Karmic, Cathartic, Sacred and Renascent. Also contains chart-studies of the Brontes, John Lennon and Jim Morrison.

KAREN HAMAKER-ZONDAG: THE YOD BOOK pb £16.99

A yod is formed when two planets in sextile also form inconjuncts to another planet. Karen has been studying yods for many years, and this book promises to be the definitive work on the subject. Also included here is a discussion of how the energies of unaspected planets, and planets in duet (that only aspect each other) are expressed in a person's birth-chart. The book includes case histories of famous people (Clinton and Lewinsky, Charles and Diana etc.) plus those of Karen's own clients.

ED. SUZI HARVEY: ORPHEUS - Voices in Contemporary Astrology pb £14.95

This excellent anthology of original essays includes the following: Jupiter as a Parental Significator in the Birth Chart by Liz Greene; Facing Janus: An Analysis of the Extremes of Saturn by Andre Barbault; War of the Worlds: Jupiter and Saturn in Conflict and Creativity by Charles Harvey; Signs or Symbols: Communicating Astrology to the Client by Lindsay Radermacher, Astrology and Dreams by Otto Rheinschmiedt, and A Vocation to Witness: A Study of Scorpio Problems and Passions by Suzi Harvey.

JOYCE HOPEWELL & RICHARD LLEWELLYN: THE COSMIC EGG TIMER pb £10.00

This introduction to the Huber method of astrology fills a welcome gap in the market, as most of Bruno and Louise Huber's books are currently unavailable. It explains the Huber Method in a clear and systematic way, including The Age Point or Lifeclock. The book is suitable for beginners as well as the professional astrologer, psychologist or counsellor seeking a fresh approach to working with clients.

MAGGIE HYDE: JUNG AND ASTROLOGY pb £ 8.99

SYNASTRY

STEPHEN ARROYO: RELATIONSHIPS AND LIFE CYCLES pb £14.99

The major part of this book is concerned with synastry, whilst the rest is mostly on transits. Drawing largely on material from workshops, it shows the author at his most intuitive and inspirational. Includes original work on the "Use of the Houses in Chart Comparison."

MARION MARCH & JOAN McEVERS
THE ONLY WAY TO LEARN ABOUT RELATIONSHIPS pb £12.99

Good synastry book, packed with charts of the famous (including composites).

RON DAVISON: SYNASTRY pb £18.99

This comprehensive work includes sections on marriage charts, first-meeting horoscopes, the 'part of marriage,' and the relationship horoscope (i.e. midpoint in time and space).

LOIS HAINES SARGENT:
HOW TO HANDLE YOUR HUMAN RELATIONS pb £6.99

Written in 1958, this is a clear and concise introduction to the methods of chart comparison. Contains delineations of comparative aspects between planets.

E. W. NEVILLE: PLANETS IN SYNASTRY pb £14.99

After a thorough introduction, the author examines the planets in each of the houses, and in aspect to each other from both a comparative and composite perspective.

JODIE FORREST & STEPHEN FORREST:
SKYMATES - LOVE, SEX & EVOLUTIONARY ASTROLOGY pb £16.99

This book emphasises freedom of choice, honest communication, and mutual psychological understanding as the keys to satisfying, lasting intimacy.

STEPHEN & JODIE FORREST: SKYMATES 2 - THE COMPOSITE CHART pb £18.99

In this substantial book, the authors give you theory, real-life practical examples, and an extensive "cookbook" section where you can jumpstart your interpretations by looking up the meaning of any configuration. In the first volume of Skymates they showed how to compare charts. Now, they take it a step further, showing the whole is greater than the sum of the parts (445pp.).

ROBERT HAND: PLANETS IN COMPOSITE pb £17.99

In this book Robert Hand has done the same for composites as he has previously done for transits. In his lucid and systematic style, he has produced the definitive reference work.

JOHN TOWNLEY: COMPOSITE CHARTS pb £19.99

John Townley pioneered the technique in the early 70's. Features of his book include; how to construct a composite chart, how to synthesize natal, synastry and composites, the effect of the composite Ascendant, and composite planetary placements by sign, house & aspect.

TECHNIQUES

ROBERT HAND: HOROSCOPE SYMBOLS pb £19.95

This major work explores the core meanings of the aspects, signs and houses. It includes an introduction to midpoints, the 90 degree dial and planetary pairs and two alternative views on houses, including the case for clockwise houses.

WILLIAM LILLY: CHRISTIAN ASTROLOGY Books 1 & 2 pb £29.99

The great historical work of the 17th Century is now available in standard English format. Books 1&2 (one volume) is the horary part of the text.

Also available by William Lilly - Christian Astrology Book 3 (natal) pb £22.50

OLIVIA BARCLAY: HORARY ASTROLOGY DISCOVERED pb £16.95

This fine introduction to astrology includes a worthwhile section on early astrologers.

JOHN FRAWLEY: THE REAL ASTROLOGY pb £18.99

In his first book, John presents a critique of modern astrology, and a detailed introduction to all the main branches of the traditional craft. Included is a clear exposition of the cosmological background, and a step-by-step guide to method, that is thorough, yet accessible to those with no prior knowledge of the subject.

JOHN FRAWLEY: THE REAL ASTROLOGY APPLIED pb £18.99

A sequel to "The Real Astrology". Subjects covered here include: the nature of light; antiscia; Arabian parts; using mutual reception to make changes in the life; William Lilly; the perception of time; the role of the Lord of the Geniture in spiritual aspiration; receptions; why it goes wrong; the seasons; medical charts; the assessment of temperament; solar and lunar calendars, and the true nature of the malefics.

JOHN FRAWLEY: THE HORARY TEXTBOOK pb £22.00

New title from one of the leading figures in the world of horary astrology. The aim of this book is to present a clear and comprehensive guide to the craft of horary. Part 1 teaches the techniques that are used. Part 2 shows how these techniques are applied to find answers to all the more common questions that the astrologer is called to judge.

DORIAN GIESELER GREENBAUM: TEMPERAMENT - Astrology's Forgotten Key pb £18.95

From the classical period through to the renaissance, the four temperament types (choleric, melancholic, sanguine and phlegmatic) were the bedrock of astrology. This book describes in detail how astrologers through the ages have assessed temperament. It goes on to provide a meticulously researched method for doing this.

DEBORAH HOULDING: TEMPLES OF THE SKY pb £14.50

In this revised and expanded edition of her first book, Deborah presents original research into the history and development of house meanings.

LEE LEHMANN, Ph.D. J. : THE BOOK OF RULERSHIPS pb £16.95

Similar in structure to Rex. E. Bills "The Rulership Book", the aim of this book is to return to a more extensive study of classical sources of rulership. The sources referred to are Al Biruni, Culpeper, Gadbury, Lilley, Partridge, Ramesey and Saunders. Two hundred pages are given to an alphabetical listing of rulerships, then rulerships are given by planet (Sun to Saturn), sign and house.

LEE LEHMANN, Ph.D. J. : CLASSICAL ASTROLOGY FOR MODERN LIVING pb £16.95

Using methods developed by ancient astrologers, Lee Lehmann works to strengthen techniques used by astrologers today. Included are chapters on Essential Dignities; Sect; The Part of Fortune; When a Quincunx is Not an Inconjunct; The Nodal Cycle; Mutual Reception; The Ancient Medical Model; How to Read a House and Profecions.

LEE LEHMANN, Ph.D. J. : THE MARTIAL ART OF HORARY ASTROLOGY pb £24.95

This book presents the technique of horary viewed through the lens of western classical astrology. The aim is that by the time you finish reading it, you will have a good understanding of how classical astrology works, the kinds of questions that horary can answer, and the approaches that are available to answering these questions. The larger part of the book features chapters on the affairs of each of the twelve houses.

MAURICE McCANN: THE VOID OF COURSE MOON pb £5.99

In this book, the author bravely tackles this much debated question. This work results from a study of William Lilly's definition and use of the void of course Moon in "Christian Astrology." Lilly's original horoscopes and judgements are included.

MAURICE McCANN: THE SUN & THE ASPECTS pb £6.95

With reference to the Ptolemaic system, the author puts forward the case that no aspect or technique has any validity unless it is under the Sun's control. The book also examines Kepler's discovery of the 'so called' quintile family of aspects in the 17th century, and Alan Leo's 'tampering' with the orbs of the planets in the late 19th century.

MAURICE McCANN: ASTROLOGICAL ESSAYS pb £8.95

A collection of articles written over several years that deal with various techniques and viewpoints in both horary and natal astrology.

The latest book in this popular series aims to simplify and update the traditional techniques of using astrology to answer questions, and to elect times for specific events.

KIM FARNELL: THE ASTRAL TRAMP - A Biography of Sepharial pb £9.99

Once a respected psychic, astrologer and theosophist, Sepharial has in recent times sunk into relative obscurity. In this book the author seeks to reinstate him as one of the most influential figures in the occult establishment at the turn of the century.

HISTORY

PETER WHITFIELD: ASTROLOGY - A HISTORY pb £15.99

Beautifully produced book from the British Library, containing many colour pictures and full-page plates. The book covers Babylon, Greece (including Marcus Manilius and Claudius Ptolemy), The Middle Ages (including God or Destiny: The Debate about the Limits of Astrology), The Renaissance, and Astrology in the Modern Era (up to Alan Leo). 207 pp.

PATRICK CURRY: A CONFUSION OF PROPHETS h/c £12.00

Excellent work tracing astrology during the latter 18th and 19th centuries in England. Chapters on John Varley, Raphael, Zadkiel, A.J.Pearce, Richard Garnett, and Alan Leo.

Ed. ANNABELLA KITSON: HISTORY AND ASTROLOGY pb £14.99

A must for traditional astrologers, and those interested in the history of astrology. The material ranges from Mesopotamia in 1800 B.C. to eighteenth century England. Contributors include Derek Appleby, Nick Champion, Patrick Curry, Prudence Jones, Annabella Kitson, and Nick Kollerstrom.

NICHOLAS CAMPION & NICK KOLLERSTROM: GALILEO'S ASTROLOGY pb £17.50

This unique collection gathers together writings on Galileo's use of astrology; some of which are previously published, and others that are published here for the first time.

JAMES HERSCHEL HOLDEN: A HISTORY OF HOROSCOPIC ASTROLOGY pb £18.99

A well-researched book tracing astrology from the Babylonian period to the modern age.

MARJORIE ORR: THE ASTROLOGICAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD

The Influence of the Planets on Human History pb £3.99

Ambitious work, aimed at a wide readership. The first fifty or so pages span the last 2000 years by focusing on specific areas of life in relation to planetary alignments. The larger part of the book explores the past 100 years by looking at Events, Science, Culture, Births and (trends governing) Personalities born in a specific year. The book also includes a chapter on The Birth of Nations (concise Astro-Profiles of 35 countries).

KEITH THOMAS: RELIGION AND THE DECLINE OF MAGIC Check avail.

A major analysis of beliefs held in English society between medieval times and the changing intellectual atmosphere around 1700. Includes chapter on Astrology and Religion. (853pp.).

ARTHUR W. CHADBOURNE:

ANCIENT WHISPERS FROM CHALDEA pb £13.99

This major and substantial work makes available for the first time to the modern astrologer a complete system of Chaldean astrology. Amongst the vast range of material presented here, are sections on exaltation, lunar mansions and nodes, the Chaldean sunset system, the solar return, the horary chart, and harmonics. (509 pp.).

PHILOSOPHICAL

RICHARD TARNAS: PASSION OF THE WESTERN MIND pb £14.99

Inspiring, beautifully written and lucid history of Western thought spanning ancient Greece, neo-Platonism, Christianity, the Renaissance, the scientific and philosophical revolutions and the modern era (544pp.) To be followed by “Cosmos and Psyche.”

RICHARD TARNAS: PROMETHEUS THE AWAKENER pb £14.99

In this book, the author explores the archetypal meaning of the planet Uranus.

GEOFFREY CORNELIUS: THE MOMENT OF ASTROLOGY pb £17.99

A revised edition of one of the great astrology books of recent times (now substantially expanded). It should be well worth repurchasing - especially if you are interested in horary astrology and philosophy.

DENNIS ELWELL: THE COSMIC LOOM pb £16.50

Describing astrology as “the greatest truth in the world,” the author tackles the scientific, moral and religious objections to astrology. Revised in 1999, the book now contains original material on the death of Princess Diana and the Dunblane massacre, as well as some new thoughts about Chiron. An extremely well-written and readable work.

ZEV BEN SHIMON HALEVI: ASTROLOGY & KABBALAH pb £14.50

The author (also known as Warren Kenton) is a highly acclaimed expert on the Kabbalah. In this lucid and beautifully written book, he brings astrology together with the Kabbalistic “Tree of Life.” He shows how it is part of a universal scheme, which manifests on the various levels of creation from the Divine, through the archetypal, psychological and physical levels. An excellent introduction to Kabbalah for astrologers.

THOMAS MOORE: THE PLANETS WITHIN pb £12.99

Beautifully written book, taking us to the heart of the astrological psychology of the great Renaissance thinker, Marsilio Ficino. This book treats him as a living psychologist with something to say about the modern psyche. It is recommended to all who feel an affinity with Neo-Platonic and Hermetic thought, and to all those seeking “a world with soul.”

ASTROLOGY AND THE ACADEMY

Edited by: Nicholas Campion, Patrick Curry & Michael York pb £19.99

This collection of essays is adapted from the papers delivered at the first conference to be held at the first university department ever to be devoted to the critical study of astrology and astronomy in culture (13-14 June 2003). With a foreword by Patrick Curry and an Introduction by Nicholas Campion, the key note addresses by Dr. Liz Greene, as well as Dr. Angela Voss, Derek Walters, Geoffrey Cornelius, Dr. Maarit Laurento, Michael Harding, Pat Harris, Prudence Jones and others.

ROY WILLIS AND PATRICK CURRY:
ASTROLOGY, SCIENCE AND CULTURE - Pulling Down the Moon h/c £15.99

In this book, Willis and Curry argue that, contrary to contemporary understanding – including that of most astrologers – astrology was originally and remains a divinatory practice. The authors tackle astrology’s rich and controversial history, its problematic relationship to Jungian theory, and attempt to prove its grounding in objective reality.

GORDON STRACHAN: THE BIBLE’S HIDDEN COSMOLOGY h/c £14.99

A revised edition of “Christ and Cosmos”, now in larger format, with attractive illustrations, and a new chapter on The Twelve Epochs of the Age of Pisces (which is based on the work of Charles Carter). Here, the disciplines of music-theory, astronomy-astrology, numerology and sacred geometry are used to uncover hidden wisdom.
